

How are Year 1 Eloquent and Truthful?

What do these Virtues mean?

Eloquent

Using kind, clear words
Speaking in a way that helps others understand
Sharing ideas confidently and sensibly

Truthful

Always telling the truth
Being honest even when it's hard
Doing the right thing and not pretending or hiding things

In our first half term during Ten Ten we looked closely at our emotions.

It is important to know our emotions and that of others, being truthful, open and honest helps us in lots of ways to learn. We thought about the Virtue of 'Truthful' during these lessons.

In our story, the Meanies came to school we talked about how its important to be kind and share nice words and actions to everyone in school and our class.

We are eloquent when speak to our friends and play.

We are learning to become more eloquent everyday in having confidence to share our ideas and opinions!

Da iawn Year One!
