

Collective Worship

In collective worship, the children engaged in a range of reflective and meaningful experiences. They began with a hook day focused on Myths and Legends, using storytelling and prayer to explore deeper themes and capture their imagination. They marked Ash Wednesday, learning about its significance as a time for reflection and preparation. The children also took part in an Easter liturgy at church, where they gathered in a special setting to reflect on the importance of Easter, prayer, and community.

