

Baptism/Confirmation – Belonging – Called

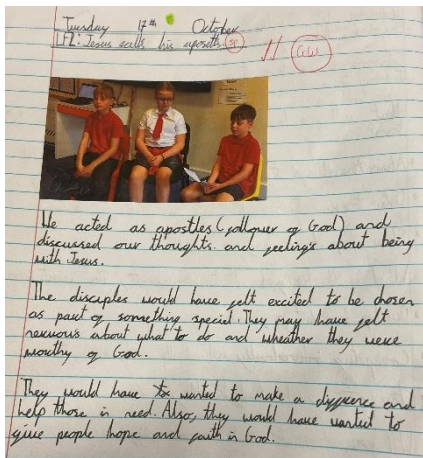

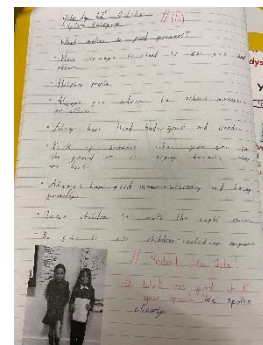

Big Question: What does it mean to be chosen or called?

Explore:

Children explored a club they belong to including expectations, what is good being part of a club and sacrifices they will have to make. Others explored what makes a good school prefect if they were called to be one.

LF1: The call of Samuel and David is chosen

Children researched Martin Luther King and described how he was called to carry God's message of love. Other children wrote a diary entry from King David's perspective on being chosen.

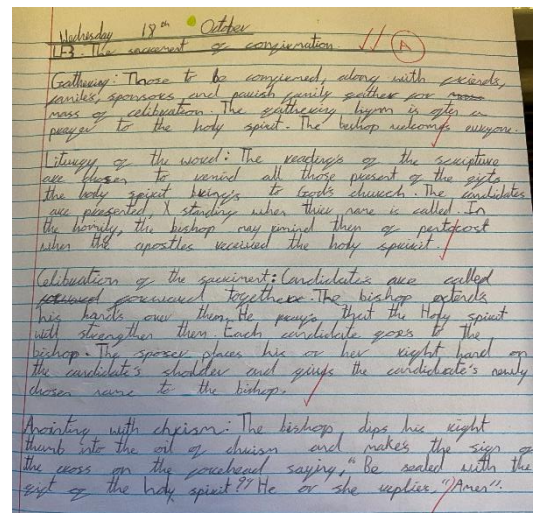

LF2: Jesus calls his apostles

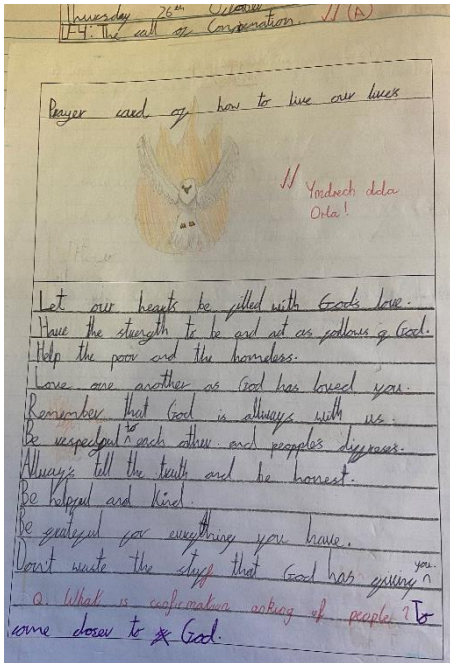

Some children did a character study of Peter.

Others completed a postcard from the perspective of an apostle to their families explaining why they are going with Jesus. Others orally discussed their thoughts and feelings about being an apostle.

LF3: The sacrament of confirmation

Children ordered the different stages of confirmation describing each stage including some of the symbolism.

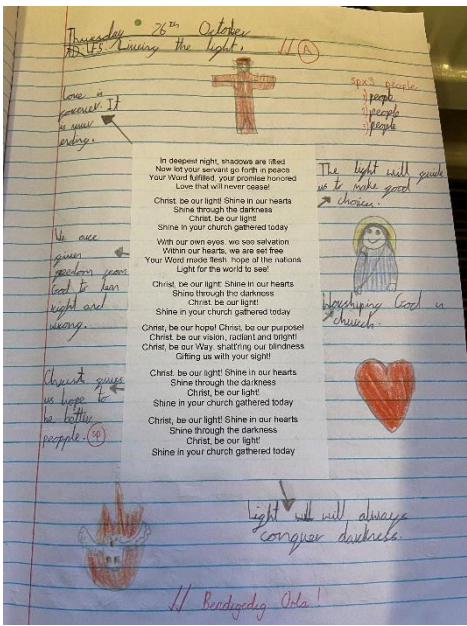

LF4: The call of Confirmation

In speech bubble, children wrote why the call of confirmation is important. Others did a poster on how to be active members of the Church. Others designed a prayer card how to live their lives after the calling of confirmation.

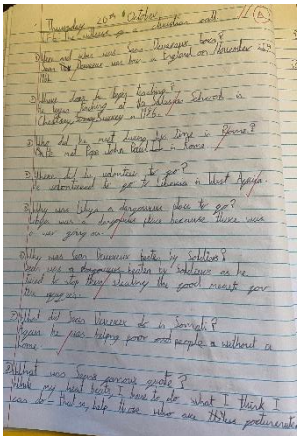

LF5: Living in the Light

Some children annotated and discussed the hymn Christ, be our Light! Others created a prayer for living in the light. Others wrote individual responses how they can live in the light.

LF6: The witness of a Christian call

Some children did an acrostic poem for 'LOVE NEVER ENDS.' Others wrote how their best friend is a witness of a Christian call. Others researched and completed a comprehension activity on Sean Devereux.

Renew:

Class had an oral discussion about how we are called by God to make right choices and be there for others.
