Lent/Easter – Giving – Self Discipline

Big Question: Is self-discipline important in life?

Explore:

Some children mind mapped ways they show self-discipline in their daily lives.

Others researched how Cristiano Ronaldo stays self-disciplined for his football. Many children wrote how they stay self-disciplined when they do their hobby e.g. gymnastics.

LF1: Lent, the opportunity to grow spiritually.

Some children sent a letter to other faiths explaining what Lent is, why it is important and what we do during Lent. Some children created a flier giving information about Ash Wednesday and Lent. Some children were given images in relation to Lent and had to explain each one.

LF2: How to live during Lent.

Some children wrote a radio programme script about Lent. Other children created a poster how to be like Jesus during Lent. Other children wrote their own Lenten promises.

LF3: Living in God's way.

Children made links to scripture of how they can live there lives out and reasons for their actions.

LF4: Holy Week.

Children role played Maundy Thursday.
This included the washing of the disciples feet as well as the receiving of Jesus' body and blood.

Through pupil voice, children chose a station of the cross to draw and colour.

Lear local acord shops. I writing to you because easter is coming up and you should stock up one easter acords it's because the adoration og easter is a big thing for chirely and or uniqued. To I just must you to be aware that range people will be huring your cay as ruiso christians where I easter is a big thing your agas, ruiso christians will be huring your agas, ruiso christians will alobrate buy greating chorcarlate eggs.

LF6: The Empty Tomb

Some worked in a group to create an acrostic poem for 'EASTER.' Other children made a front cover for an Easter card. Some children wrote a letter to local shops about the demand for Easter cards.